SMA Southern Medical Association

Advocacy, Leadership, Quality and Professional Identity

The Southern Medical Association promotes the health of patients through advocacy, leadership, education and service. This is accomplished through a unique blend of tools, a balanced portfolio of tangible and intangible products and services, promoting Advocacy, Leadership, Quality and Professional Identity. SMA is a vibrant community of healthcare professionals with a bias for action in order to meet the difficult challenges of providing medicine today. SMA members have a passion for developing and enhancing their professional identity as leaders who advocate for quality healthcare.

SMA Services, Inc.

A subsidiary of The Southern Medical Association

SMA Services, Inc. offers personalized services from professionals who have years of experience in their specific areas. Services designed to provide you confidence, trust and reliability as they work to build security for you, your family, your staff and their families through a variety of insurance, financial services, travel and member-based programs.

Southern Medical Association Alliance

The Southern Medical Association Alliance consists of dedicated individuals whose focus is on “Healthy Lifestyles”. A simple touch...A helping hand... is all that is needed to make a difference. One of the ways the SMA Alliance makes a difference is by providing opportunities to establish ties among medical families in order to support and encourage one another in these challenging times. The SMAA continues the tradition of medical heritage preservation and the celebration of Doctors’ Day to honor physicians.

RETIREMENT PROGRAM OPTIONS

QUALIFIED PLANS

Defined Contribution Plan

A defined contribution plan is a retirement plan that “provides an individual account for each participant and for benefits based solely upon the amount contributed to the participant’s account, and any income, expenses, gains and losses, and any forfeiture of accounts of other participants which may be allocated to such participant’s account.” [ERISA § 3(34); IRC § 414(i)]

Call For More Information

Profit Sharing Plan

A profit sharing plan is a defined contribution plan to which the company agrees to make “substantial and recurring,” although generally discretionary, contributions.

Call For More Information

Money Purchase Pension Plan

A money purchase pension plan is a defined contribution plan in which the company’s contributions are mandatory and are usually based solely on each participant’s compensation.

Call For More Information

401(k) Plan

A 401(k) plan is a qualified profit sharing or stock bonus plan that offers participants an election to receive company contributions in cash or to have these amounts contributed to the plan. [IRC §§ 401(k)(2), 402(a)(8)]

Call For More Information

Keogh Plan

A Keogh, or H.R. 10, plan is a qualified retirement plan maintained by a self-employed individual, either a sole proprietor or a partner. A Keogh plan may be either a defined contribution plan or a defined benefit plan.

Call For More Information

Defined Benefit Plan

A defined benefit plan is a retirement plan “other than an individual account plan.” A plan that is not a defined contribution plan is classified as a defined benefit plan. Under a defined benefit plan, retirement benefits must be definitely determinable. The most common types of defined benefit plans are flat benefit plans and unit benefit plans.

Call For More Information

Hybrid Plan

A hybrid plan uses features of a defined benefit and defined contribution to achieve a specific result.

Call For More Information

New Comparability Plan

A new comparability plan is generally a profit-sharing plan or a money purchase pension plan in which the contribution percentage formula for one category of participants is greater than the contribution percentage formula for other categories of participants.

Call For More Information

Target Benefit Plan

A target benefit plan is a hybrid or cross between a defined benefit plan and a money purchase pension plan. It is like a defined benefit plan in that the annual contribution is determined by the amount needed each year to accumulate (at an assumed rate of interest) a fund sufficient to pay a projected retirement benefit (the target benefit) to each participant on reaching retirement age.

Call For More Information

Cash Balance Plan

A cash balance plan is a hybrid of a traditional defined benefit pension plan and a 401(k) plan, enabling high net worth business owners and partners to maximize retirement benefits.

Call For More Information

Plan Document Design

SMA Services, Inc. (SMAS) is the sponsor of an approved prototype document for defined contribution plans. We have access to hybrid plan documents on an “as needed basis”. SMAS has partnered with a nationally-known provider for the defined benefit documents, as well as all of the administrative functions for a defined benefit plan.

Call For More Information

Plan Administration

SMAS can serve as the third-party administrator for your defined contribution retirement plan. By allowing SMAS to serve in this capacity, you will free up more of your time to devote to your family and practice. Our annual fees start as low as $650.00.

Call For More Information

Plan Investments

SMAS has many options for the investment of your retirement plan. SMAS has made a commitment to provide all the services needed for your retirement plan, including the investments. SMAS also has a group annuity product designed for defined contribution plans underwritten by Ameritas Life.

Southern Medical Association Alliance

MEMBERSHIP

Spouses of physician members of the Southern Medical Association can be members of the SMA Alliance—an organization that was founded in 1924 to promote and preserve the art and science of medicine. A $25.00 annual membership fee helps to support the projects of the Alliance and to help offset fees associated with the publishing of our newsletter – Southern Connection. The members of SMAA focus on health education, preservation of medical history, and observance of Doctors’ Day through community service activities.

DOCTORS’ DAY

In 1935 SMAA initiated celebration of Doctors’ Day, an observance which culminated in the 1990 proclamation by President George Bush of March 30 as National Doctors’ Day. SMAA continues to encourage its members to promote the observance through community projects. These projects pay tribute to physicians, remind the public of doctors’ dedication to the health and welfare of patients, and increase awareness of the positive role of physicians in the community. SMAA offers a variety of products to use in recognizing physicians on this special day, with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the Research & Endowment Fund.

HEALTH EDUCATION

SMAA’s cornerstone Health Education project is Breast Cancer Awareness. Special seminars and educational programs at the annual meeting each year address these issues. Local programs and statewide campaigns aimed at prevention techniques promote the importance of the individual in managing his or her own health. In 2005, osteoporosis and heart disease in women were added to breast cancer awareness as health education projects.

MEDICAL HERITAGE

The goal of the Medical Heritage program is to preserve medical history and to stimulate an interest in the research and recording of otherwise unacknowledged events and significant contributions to the broad field of medicine within the region of the Southern Medical Association.

SMAA members actively research, document, and archive the many achievements of Southern physicians – making this the only group systematically researching and recording the Southern history of medicine.

SMA RESEARCH AND EDUCATION ENDOWMENT FUND

In 1986, SMA established a Research and Education Endowment Fund to provide funds in support of medical students through scholarships and research grants. Over a million dollars has been raised to date. Each year, the Alliance sponsors several fund-raising events to benefit the Endowment Fund during the SMA Fall Meeting.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Alliance meets each year at the same time and location as SMA's Fall Meeting. Convention attendees enjoy a comprehensive schedule of meetings and presentations including:

- Educational and enrichment programs
- Awards presentations
- Doctors' Day, Health Education, and Medical Heritage exhibits
- Social event

Membership in the Alliance is not only a forum for personal and professional development, but more importantly, it's an opportunity to establish ties among medical families, in order to support and encourage one another in these challenging times.

Immediately upon becoming an SMA member, you can make a difference! Please select one or more of the Committees in which you would like to participate.
