

Burn Rehabilitation Guideline, Concepts and Techniques: DOI to Return to Pre-Burn Status

Date: November 8, 2018

Time: 8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Location: Renaissance Mobile Riverview Plaza Hotel, Mobile, Alabama

Sandra Fletchall OTR/L, CHT, MPA, FAOTA

Manager of Burn Rehabilitation Department at the Firefighters Burn Center, Memphis, Tennessee, where she is also involved with the SOAR program. Her 44 years of practice includes all areas of care, including operation of a private practice specializing in limb loss and burns. She is a Certified Clinician with Touch Bionics, upper limb prosthetic components and a Certified Hand Therapist. Her numerous presentations and publications have focused on rehabilitation with burn injury and/or traumatic limb. She is clinical instructor at University of Tennessee Health Sciences and teaches at Concorde College. She is a recipient of the AOTA Fellow award for contributions in burn and limb loss and recipient of the American Burn Association Barbara Knothe Therapist Award. She is currently progressing towards Burn Therapist Certification.

Kevin Griffith, M.Div., BCC

Mr. Griffith is presently the Chaplain for the Firefighters Burn Center, Memphis, Tennessee, where serves as a SOAR Trainer and SOAR Coordinator. His experience includes 15 years of Youth and Family ministry in the local church prior to his 12 years of clinical service as a Staff Chaplain in a level 1 trauma center. He received his Master of Divinity from Harding School of Theology, Memphis, Tennessee, and is a Board Certified Chaplain with the Association of Professional Chaplains.

D'Ann Hershel, PTA, MSG, CKTP

Mrs. Hershel has 27 years of experience in academic medical centers with 13 years in burn care. She has practiced in acute care, outpatient, acute rehabilitation and long-term care facilities. She is presently an Assistant Project Manager for Burn/Trauma Research at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center, Winston Salem, North Carolina. She has been an active member of the American Burn Association and Southern Regional Burn Conference Rehabilitation Committees.

Dana Nakamura OTR/L, CLT

Ms. Nakamura has 33 years of experience in burn rehabilitation, and presently provides burn rehabilitation services at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center, Winston Salem, North Carolina. In addition to providing services in the ICU, acute care and outpatient settings, she is an ABLIS instructor and is the burn center's Burn Survivors SOAR program Coordinator/Trainer and a member of the Victim2Victor Burn Survivor support group. Dana has presented on a variety of subjects at the Southern Medical Association Burn Conference, American Burn Association and the International Society for Burn Injury conference. She is a reviewer for Burns and the Journal of Burn Care and Research. She provides lectures to the MOT students at Winston Salem State University. She is a recipient of the American Burn

Association Barbara Knothe therapist award and is currently working towards Burn Therapist Certification.

Jonathan Niszcak MS, OTR/L

Mr. Niszcak is a Clinical Care Specialist. He performs burn rehabilitation services at Temple University Hospital Burn Center, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is active in the American Burn Association. In 2013, he received the Medical Diplomat Award from the Physicians for Peace. He was instrumental in establishing the American Burn Association Barbara Knothe Therapist award. He has become a Burn Therapist-Certified through the American Burn Association.

Michael Serghiou OTR, MBA

Mr. Serghiou is a Clinical Care Specialist. His experience includes Director of Rehabilitation at Shriner's Hospital for Children, Galveston, Texas. He remains active in the American Burn Association. In 2013, he received the Medical Diplomat Award from the Physicians for Peace. He is a recipient of the American Burn Association Barbara Knothe therapist award. He has become a Burn Therapist-Certified through the American Burn Association.