

Disclosure of Relevant Financial Relationships

As an organization accredited by the ACCME, Southern Medical Association requires everyone who is in a position to control the content of an education activity to disclose all relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest. The ACCME defines "relevant financial relationships" as financial relationships in any amount, occurring within the past 12 months, including financial relationships of a spouse or life partner that could create a conflict of interest.

Southern Medical Association encourages Speakers/Authors to identify investigational products or off-label uses of products regulated by the US Food and Drug Administration, at first mention and where appropriate in the content.

David Joyner, MD

David M. Joyner, MD, serves as senior vice president and executive director of the Andrews Institute. Dr. Joyner is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Andrews Institute, including physician alignment, strategic business partnerships, and affiliations and recruitment.

Dr. Joyner is a board-certified orthopaedic surgeon with a sports medicine emphasis. He is a former chairman and senior member of the United States Olympic Committee's sports medicine team, and, most recently, he was the athletic director for the Pennsylvania State University. He is also a former member of Penn State's Board of Trustees. While a student at Penn State, he was a team captain of the football and wrestling teams, an All-American in both sports, as well as an Academic All-American. Dr. Joyner earned his medical degree from Penn State's College of Medicine and served residencies in general and orthopaedic surgery at the university's Milton S. Hershey Medical Center.

Disclosure:

- Dr. Joyner has no relevant financial relationships to disclose:
- Dr. Joyner does not intend to discuss off-label or investigational uses of drugs, mechanical devices, biologics, or diagnostics not yet approved by the FDA for use in the United States.

Planning Committee

The following planning committee members have no relevant financial relationships to declare:

Donald DiPette, MD

Christopher Morris, MD

Randall E. Glick, BSB/PM MCP

Jennifer Price, MA, SMA CME Program Manager