2. Any inclusion in a presentation of a commercial product with an unlabeled use or an investigational use not yet approved by the FDA.

Disclosure to Learners - SMA ensures that all attendees/participants of SMA CME activities are informed of financial relationships (or "no" relationship) disclosed by individuals who are in a position to control the content prior to the beginning of an activity either in print, verbally, or by multimedia display. Conflicts of interest, if any exist, will be mitigated prior to the activity.

Resolution of Conflict of Interest (COI) Policy

Live CME: Speakers – All speakers' disclosure information, along with the provided content (slides, abstracts, etc.), will be reviewed either by SMA's Education Committee, Physicians-in-Training Committee, or by a Content Reviewer. If during this process a COI is identified, SMA Staff will provide direction to correct the conflict. Corrective measures will be documented in the activity file.

Abstract Embargo and Permission Policies

Any use of the program content for commercial purposes, which includes, but is not limited to oral presentations, poster presentations, audiovisual materials used by speakers, and program handouts without the written consent of the SMA is prohibited. ## Definitions, Policies, Guidelines Related to Disclosure and Conflicts of Interest

New Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education
The ACCME's new Standards were released in December 2020, replacing the Standards for Commercial Support. Please note the updates and changes related to disclosure outlined below.

Identification and Mitigation of Relevant Financial Relationships of Planners, Faculty, and Others

Disclosure Information

Disclosure information must be completed by Planners, Faculty, and all Others Who May Control Educational Content of an accredited activity. It is SMA's responsibility to determine which relationships are relevant. You must disclose all financial relationships that you have had in the past 24 months with ineligible companies (see definition below). For each financial relationship, you must provide the name of the ineligible company and the nature of the financial relationship(s). There is no minimum financial threshold; we ask that you disclose all financial relationships, regardless of the amount, with ineligible companies. You should disclose all financial relationships regardless of the potential relevance of each relationship to the education. The requirement of disclosing for a spouse/guest has been removed. Ineligible companies are organizations that are not eligible for accreditation (formerly known as commercial interests). This new term is intended to clarify that eligibility for accreditation is not based on whether an organization is for-profit or nonprofit but is based on its primary mission and function.

Upon receipt of your disclosure information, SMA staff will:

1. Review your submitted disclosure information. Please note that owners or employees of ineligible companies will be excluded from participating as planners, speakers, authors, or faculty.
2. Determine whether your financial relationships with ineligible companies disclosed (if any), are relevant to the content of the education being planned. Financial relationships are relevant if the following three conditions are met for the prospective person who will control content of the education:
  - A financial relationship, in any amount, exists between the person in control of content and an ineligible company.
  - The content of the education is related to the products of an ineligible company with whom the person has a financial relationship.
  - The financial relationship existed during the past 24 months.
  - Choose a mitigation strategy: For any person who has a relevant financial relationship, a strategy to mitigate (formerly known as "resolve") the conflict will be implemented by SMA staff before the person assumes their role. The following are examples of how the conflict may be mitigated:

FAQs

Question: May I submit more than one abstract?

Answer: We are accepting one (1) abstract per presenter in order to allow others to participate.

Question: May I submit/include tables, figures, charts, or photographs/images with my submission?

Answer: At this time, we are not allowing tables, figures, charts or photographs along with the abstract submission. Please describe the content within the text, and plan to incorporate images with your presentation, if accepted.

Question: May I submit/present my abstract elsewhere if accepted for presentation?

Answer: SMA's policy is that abstracts presented during SMA events can be submitted and/or presented elsewhere. Please make sure to check with the organization and let them know that your abstract has been submitted elsewhere, and/or previously presented.

Question: May I submit an abstract that has been previously presented elsewhere?

Answer: An abstract is ineligible for consideration if it reports work that has been accepted for publication as a manuscript (e.g., full-length article, brief report, case report, concise communication or letter to the editor) prior to the SMA submission deadline of June 30, 2023, UNLESS written permission has been given from the entity that first published the work and the permission is submitted to SMA.

Question: I made an error on my submission. May I correct it?

Answer: At this time, after the submission deadline, no changes can be made. If before the deadline you realize there is an error, please email SMA staff: education@sma.org. Include the presenting author's name, and the abstract title. You may re-submit the abstract reflecting the necessary corrections if the abstract, in its entirety, is submitted before the deadline.

Question: Is there a word limit?

Answer: Yes. Please limit your abstract to 350 words (not including the title, authors, or learning objectives).

Question: Since submitting, I am now unable to present my abstract. May I designate a substitute?

Answer: Yes, as long as the person is listed as a Co-author on the abstract, is a medical student, resident, or fellow, and agrees to present in the accepted format. Please email SMA Staff: education@sma.org, and include: Your name, the abstract title, and the designee's name and email address. The co-author will be required to register and pay the registration fee no later than 3 business days prior to the conference.

Question: How soon will I know if my abstract has been accepted?

Answer: Once the review process is completed, the presenter will receive notification via the email provided.

Question: Is there a scholarship or some type of funding for the presenter's expenses to the conference?

Answer: SMA will match the presenter's institution funding, up to $500. What this means is if the institution is willing to provide funds for travel expenses to the conference, SMA will reimburse the institution, up to $500.

Question: Do I have to be an SMA member to submit?

Answer: No – however, members enjoy discounted registration fees and many other benefits. Medical Students' membership fees are free, and Residents only pay $100 per year.

Question: Who do I contact if I have any questions?

Answer: You may ask your questions by emailing education@sma.org.
